Let's celebrate Father's Day...

“A quick glance in shops at the moment reveals shelves stuffed full of men's gifts and cards, which must mean only one thing: it's Father's Day again. Unlike Mothering Sunday, Father's Day does not have its origins in a church festival: is it just an excuse for card shops to make money or should the church take it seriously?”

“I have never known a love quite like the love of being a father and I rejoice in the great gift of fatherhood. I rejoice in it because of my children, to whom I am devoted. But I also rejoice in it because it helps me to understand more profoundly how God loves me, and how nothing can separate me from that love. When Jesus told the story of the prodigal son, in which a father joyfully welcomes home a son who had squandered all that his father gave him, it was to reveal the way in which God (whom Jesus tells us to call our Father) wants to relate to us. It's a tragedy when we hear of, or experience for ourselves, fathers that fall a long way short of this ideal, but it's also a tragedy if we allow these experiences to colour our views of fatherhood as a whole. If Jesus honoured fatherhood in this way, why shouldn't we?”

“Let's celebrate Father's day in our churches, honouring those fathers who have shown us something of God's love, praying for fathers to be given strength in their crucial role and remembering that God, who is our Father in heaven, loves us more than we can grasp.”

From an article by the Rt Revd John Inge, Bishop of Worcester

Our Mission

Giving thanks to God,
we encourage each other
to discover God's purpose
for our lives,
which equips us
for service in the world.

Our Vision

As one parish we are committed to growing our parish in numbers, providing quality pastoral care, and responding to people in need through effective social action.

We will excel in training for ministry, lay and ordained.

We will build a reputation for being good neighbours in our town and borough.

We offer hospitality to friends and strangers.

We are known for engaged preaching, teaching and worship.

WELCOME to our services in the parish of Great Grimsby. Today's morning service at the Minster is a special service for Father's Day, as we celebrate dads, grandads and all those who have been father-figures to us.

Please note that there is an EVENING SERVICE of Holy Communion with hymns at 6pm today.

After the All age worship today for Father's Day you're invited to bring a picnic lunch to enjoy outside in St James' square. This is part of the GREAT GET TOGETHER which is inspired by the late MP Jo Cox and is aimed at bringing communities together. Bring some food, something to sit on and games if you fancy. We will start at noon.

After rearranging the last pilgrim group because of the Election Hustings, the next session of the PILGRIM GROUP, will now be on 4th July at 7pm in the St James Centre. To start off we will read Rowan Williams' short book 'Being Christian' (SPCK 2014) and meet to discuss it and to think about what we learned from the book; if you have problems getting a copy please speak to Andrew and let Andrew or Pat Woolliss know if you can come.

The service on Sunday 9th July will be a united Parish Eucharist, as we gather together as one parish to celebrate and give thanks for the ordination of Revd Pat Barlow as a Deacon.

A memorial service for Mike Stamford will take place in the Minster on Friday 23rd June at 2.00pm.

Grimsby Minster's MOTHERS' UNION are having lunch at St Andrew's Hospice on Wednesday, 5 July 2017 at 12 30 pm. If you would like to attend could you please let Christine Plant know by Monday, 19 June 2017.

A couple of dates for your diary: We are delighted to welcome THE BACK ROW to the Minster on July 7th at 7.30pm. This exciting young vocal group is based at Royal Holloway College, University of London and featuring former Minster Choral Scholar David Whitworth. An evening of first rate music is promised, ranging from early music through to arrangements of familiar and much loved popular songs - further details to follow. Tickets: £8; accompanied children and full-time students free.

The next ORGAN RECITAL will be on Tuesday 25th July 12.30 – 1.15 and will feature David Price (Thailand). Entry is free and there will be a retiring collection. Further details will follow.
