Thought for the week

The last month has been a whirlwind of activity for me and it feels as if this is the first time I have been able to sit down and draw breath. As I reflect on the last few weeks, I realise what a time of great joy it has been. I have been overwhelmed by the welcome you have extended towards me here in Grimsby. The warmth of your smiles and the words of support have been wonderful and very much appreciated.

Last week someone told me that it would be rather good to know something about their new deacon so I thought that I really ought to put pen to paper (or these days, finger to keyboard) and give you a little bit of background information.

I live in North Kelsey with my husband Steve and our daughter. We moved to Lincolnshire in 2004 after having lived in Thailand for twelve years. Prior to that, we lived in London which is where we met. I was born in South Shields but also lived in Hull and Chelmsford before going to college in Worcester. I studied Education before becoming a primary school teacher and am now about to start my thirty-fourth year of teaching. I presently work part-time at Oasis Academy Nunthorpe and absolutely love it there.

I was raised as a Roman Catholic but was accepted into the Anglican Church about ten years ago. I quickly became involved in the local church and became a Church Warden. I then trained at Lincoln School of Theology as a Reader before discerning my present vocation. I was thrilled when Bishop Christopher offered me a training curacy in Grimsby. Between work and ministry, it can be tricky to find any spare time but when I do relax, you will find me gardening, sewing, practising archery or supporting my favourite football team, non-league side FC United of Manchester.

Finally, another huge thank-you for your welcome and I look forward to getting to know all of you as I serve on the Grimsby team. It is a privilege to be here with you.

Rev Pat Barlow
